About The Show

This down-to-earth Mother/Daughter duo share the true stories behind the songs, their rare family photos, multimedia movies and the crazy fans' antics on the long and winding road from The Cavern Club to The Hall of Fame. It's an ideal addition to any existing musical Beatles show. Angie & her anecdotes. Ruth & her revelations. The magic, myths and memories. From 1957 to 1970. Imagine all those Yesterdays!

About The McCartneys

In 1964 Angie & Ruth got their ticket to ride when Angie married Jim McCartney, Paul's dad. Ruth McCartney, Paul's step-sister, hosts an intimate insider journey for Beatle fans, together with her Mum, the last living Beatle parent, the funny and feisty octogenarian Angie McCartney.

THE STORIES BEHIND THE BEATLES

A Glimpse Into The Inner Sanctum...

- How did the Beatles REALLY come to be on the Ed Sullivan show and what has that fateful night got to do with London fog?
- What did John & Paul like to do on rare weekends off?
- Which wily methods did some fans use to get inside Beatle homes?
- How did Ringo's Mum plan for his future after the Beatles?
- What went on in the back of the limousines?
- Did Yoko actually break up the band?
- What did Cynthia Lennon think of John on their first meeting?
- Why did they suddenly depart India and never see the Maharishi again?
- Who inspired Blackbird, The Long & Winding Road, Golden Slumbers, 8-Days A Week, Lucy In The Sky, Yesterday and more...?

...from the Witnesses to History

In 1964 Angie & Ruth got their ticket to ride when Angie married Paul's dad Jim McCartney. They became part of the "Beatle Family" and will share rare footage from Bob Wooler~Cavern DeeJay, Alistair Taylor~Apple's "Mr Fixit", Billy Preston~"the 5th Beatle", Cynthia (Mrs. John) Lennon, Roadie & Chauffeur Alf Bicknell, Freda Kelly~Brian Epstein's Secretary, and more insiders who tell it just like it was.
